

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Annual

Asia-Europe Workshop Series 2010

The European Alliance for Asian Studies and the Asia-Europe Foundation welcome proposals for workshops on themes of common interest to Asia and Europe, to take place in 2010.

WHAT CAN BE APPLIED FOR?

Financial support (max. € 12,500) to organise an international academic workshop.

The grant can be used to cover travel and accommodation of participants from ASEM member countries*

WHO CAN APPLY?

Junior and senior researchers from academic institutes in ASEM member countries

WHAT ARE THE CRITERIA?

The workshop should:

- be jointly organised by one Asian and one European institute from ASEM member countries
- be convened and hosted by one of the two applicants
- consist of a three-day programme of paper presentations

- invite at least 4 participants from Asian ASEM member countries and 4 participants from European ASEM member countries
- invite participants primarily from academia – though contributions from politicians, journalists and representatives of industry are welcome
- have a balanced group of participants, in relation to research experience and gender
- have an innovative and cross-disciplinary topic, addressing shared interests of Asia and Europe, stimulating interregional dialogue

HOW TO APPLY?

All applications should be sent in English using the online form, which can be accessed at www.asia-alliance.org.

Please note that proposals sent by regular mail will not be taken into account for assessment.

DEADLINE

Proposals should be received before 1 July 2009.

Proposals will be refereed by an Asia-Europe Selection Committee; six will be selected for realisation. Applicants will be informed of the Committee's decision by October 2009.
